SOCIAL CONCERNS

On behalf of the Smyrna-Clayton Ministerium and St. Peter's Episcopal Church, where the food pantry is housed, we want to thank you for your weekly donation of food items. With increasing visits to the pantry, we are always in need of items to meet this increased need. Your donation of many of the most popular items that we are in constant need of is greatly appreciated. Thank you again for the thoughtfulness and generosity given in helping the food insecure in our community. We could not have the impact we have in the community without your help.

SOCIAL CONCERNS UPDATE

The Committee met in November and discussed a lot of great opportunities for parishioners to get involved with. If you have any ideas or a calling to bring them to fruition, please consider attending a meeting. We meet the fourth Tuesday of the month in the library at 6:30 p.m. We do have a Zoom option for attendance.

- The DHCI* ministry is in need of assistance. If interested, contact Pablo Resto at pabloresto@msn.com or Anne Marie at theaterowl@yahoo.com. (*Delaware Hospital for the Chronically Ill, located in Smyrna)

- The Giving Tree assisted 184 Smyrna School District families and seven PSR families for 2023. An increase from 138 and six respectively.

PASTORAL COUNCIL

WHO IS ON OUR PASTORAL COUNCIL? MEET JR.(Junior) & DEE NAHIL

Coming from a military family, we involve ourselves in the service of our Catholic church community wherever we are stationed, whether stateside or overseas. We have served our military parishes as lectors, eucharistic ministers, parish council members, religious education teachers, and altar guild members. When we returned from our tour in Germany, we volunteered with VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) for small businesses and low-income taxpayers. Here at Saint Polycarp, we both serve on the Pastoral Council. Jr is a lector and Dee is a Eucharistic Minister.

Junior retired from the US Air Force and is currently with the Department of Treasury, Internal Revenue Service as a Revenue Officer. Dee was born and raised in the Philippines. She came to the US in June 1991 and has been working for the Defense Department for 27 years (Finance and Accounting). She is currently working at Dover Air Force Base in the 512 Air Wing Reserve as a Budget Analyst and Resource Advisor.

We have been married for 32 years. We raised two wonderful daughters. Our eldest daughter Danica is a Registered Nurse at Christiana Hospital. Our youngest Alexis is currently serving on active-duty service in the US Army.

PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE

What happens when someone dies without a will? Lots of Americans are about to find out. According to one recent study, 68 percent of U.S. adults do not have a will or any other estate planning document. If you die without a will or intestate, the laws of the state, not you, decide who gets your assets. Could you resolve to make 2024 the year you get your affairs in order? Remember: Estate planning is for everyone. Consider a legacy gift to our parish. For your complimentary Estate Planning Guide, please email cfacciolo@cdow.org or call the Development Office of the Diocese at (302) 573 - 3121.
